

Important from Springfield!!!

By advices from Springfield we learn that the speech delivered by our "youthful" friend and "soldier," the junior editor of the Ninawaah "fixer" at the Springfield Convention, was a "powerful effort," and furnished the "most delicious treat" that was ever offered to the citizens of that place.

We are right glad of this. We can assure the citizens of Springfield that he is altogether a promising young man!!!! Having been educated at West Point by the funds of the Government, for public service, it is reasonable to suppose that great attention was given to his education, and every care taken to qualify him for a distinguished statesman!!!!

The charge is false that this "youthful" editor himself, wrote the communications signed a "Whig Lady" and "Sanguinism," which appeared in the Journal at the time he was in Springfield, in praise of himself. His modesty forbids the idea!!!!

It is false that this "soldier in peace and citizen in war" has "a grovelling ambition to gratify!!!!" It is false that he is "self-conceited," for the communication signed a "Whig Lady," which he himself did not write, says no such thing!!!!

It is false that this "youthful soldier" abandoned the U. S. Army at the time of the war, and was wanted in Florida. His bravery, evinced at the time he eloped from the Secretary of War will warrant no man in making the charge!!!!

The good citizens of La Salle county had better exercise more caution in giving such charges circulation, lest this "youthful soldier" might summon courage, and exterminate every thing that "breaths, acts, and has a being."

As a mark of our respect for his bravery, we request our agent at Peru to furnish him a wooden sword, emblematic of his valor and for services rendered. Distinguished honors await him!!!!
